Good Afternoon Friends

Here is some news I'm really excited about. You will remember that with Dr Michael Tsalka I made a CD featuring square piano and harpsichord last October. Well, Full Moon has been named CD of the Week by Radio 2MBS Fine Music for June 24. Whoo-hoo!!! Listen out if you can. Meanwhile Full Moon has been turning up in odd places, like the gnome in Amelie, in Israel, Germany and elsewhere around the world. I wonder how that happened! The very same wonderful musician Michael Tsalka returns for some spectacular concerts in July which I sincerely hope you will come along to.

Set in Stone

Three stunning concerts in three historic settings. Internationally acclaimed pianist Michael Tsalka joins Thoroughbass director Diana Weston for a mix of old and new. Concertos for harpsichord by the great JS Bach and by Australia's favourite composer Elena Kats-Chernin (Ancient Letters), a new work for the unusual combination of harpsichord and early piano forte by the ever-versatile Ann Carr-Boyd, and much else. As a keyboard duo Michael and Diana show 'consummate teamwork' (Israel review) and 'exquisite playing' (Canberra City News). These concerts are rare events and not to be missed.
